PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the United States of America has made a considerable financial commitment to expanding the nation's high-speed and intercity passenger rail network for state corridor development efforts, Amtrak state of good repair investments, and an additional $8 billion in American Recovery and Reinvestment Act awards for 13 corridors in 31 states; and

WHEREAS, developing this pipeline of national high-speed and intercity passenger rail projects will revitalize the domestic manufacturing industry and create additional American jobs, jobs that can never be off-shored; and

WHEREAS, ridership has grown more than 36% since 2000 and the national passenger railroad company is on pace to break its annual ridership record of 28.7 million passengers, which was set last year; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak annually provides intercity passenger rail travel to over 25 million Americans residing in 46 states and represents the only major intercity transportation link to the rest of the country for many rural Americans. In highly populated regions, Amtrak trains and infrastructure carry intercity passengers and commuters to and from work in congested metropolitan areas, providing a reliable rail option while reducing congestion on roads and in the skies; and

WHEREAS, our railroad station is a source of civic pride, a gateway to our community and a tool for economic growth that creates transportation-oriented development and livable communities; and

WHEREAS, on May 10, 1869 the "golden spike" was driven into the final tie at Promontory Summit, Utah to join the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific Railroads, completing the first transcontinental railroad and therefore connecting both coasts of the United States.
