

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Peter Trosclair, a founding member of KAFM Community Radio has spent the better part of 15 years in creating and running KAFM Community Radio; and

WHEREAS, Peter's efforts have benefited hundreds of volunteers and members of KAFM, as well as thousands of listeners on a daily basis for the last nine years of on-air broadcasting; and

WHEREAS, Peter's gentle but steady leadership has helped to create one of fewer than 200 locally run community stations in the entire country; and

WHEREAS, Peter has diligently worked to keep KAFM a community resource available to all, creating a virtual town square where all are welcome and every voice matters; and

WHEREAS, Peter has fostered an environment that seeks to nourish creativity for people of all ages, and to present opportunities for individuals to be involved both on and off-air; and

WHEREAS, Peter has led through example, making KAFM's resources available to hundreds of other nonprofit organizations, thereby helping them to get their messages out to the community; and

WHEREAS, Peter has helped develop KAFM's campus and Radio Room into venues for music, lifelong learning, and meetings of all kinds, while developing an enhanced internet presence to broadcast KAFM's signal worldwide; and

WHEREAS, Peter's tireless efforts and vision have helped create a unique community resource and presence that improves the life of Grand Junction residents on a daily basis.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Doody, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Grand Junction, do hereby proclaim Thursday, January 31, 2008 as in the City of Grand Junction, and encourage the entire community to support KAFM Community Radio in whatever way they can.

“PETER TROSCLAIR
AND KAFM 88.1 COMMUNITY RADIO DAY”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official Seal of the City of Grand Junction this 29th day of January, 2008.

Mayor