Colorado Housing and Finance Authority
1981 Blake Street
Denver, CO 80202-1272

Gentlemen:

I am an attorney duly admitted to practice in the State of Colorado (the "State"). I have acted as counsel for the City of Grand Junction ("City") in connection with the assignment by the City to the Colorado Housing and Finance Authority (the "Authority") of the City's allocation of the ceiling on private activity bonds which may be issued in the State during the period from January 1, to December 21, 2000 (the "2000 Allocation"), under Part 17 of Article 32 of Title 24 of the Colorado Revised Statutes (the "Allocation Act"). This assignment is being affected pursuant to an Ordinance adopted by City Council on first reading on September 6, 2000 (the "Ordinance"), and an Assignment of Allocation dated September 6, 2000 (the "Assignment of Allocation"), between the City and the Authority.

I have examined, among other things, a copy of the Ordinance. I have also examined the Constitution of the State and such statutes and regulations as I deemed appropriate, including, without limitation, the charter of the City, certificates of public officials and of officers and representatives of the City, and such other documents as I have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions hereinafter expressed. In the course of such examinations I have assumed the genuineness of all signatures and the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as copies.

Based upon the foregoing, it is my opinion that:

1. The City of Grand Junction is a City, validly existing under the Constitution and the laws of the state.
2. The City of Grand Junction has full legal right, power and authority: (a) to assign its 2000 Allocation, or a portion thereof, in accordance with the Ordinance and the Assignment of Allocation; (b) to adopt the Ordinance; (c) to execute and deliver the Assignment of Allocation; and (d) to perform its obligations under the Ordinance.
3. The adoption or the execution and delivery and the performance of the City of the Ordinance, and the Assignment of Allocation and the performance of obligations thereunder, have been duly authorized by the City. Each have been duly adopted or executed and delivered by the City and each of them constitute valid and binding obligations of the City enforceable in accordance with the respective terms.
4. The adoption of the Ordinance and the execution and delivery of the Assignment of Allocation, and compliance with the terms, conditions and provisions of each thereof by the City, will not conflict with or result in a breach or violation of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of the Constitution or the laws of the State, local ordinances, resolutions, charter, bylaws, or other regulations, or any other governmental authority of any nature whatsoever as now existing or, to the best of my knowledge, any agreement or instrument to which the City is now a party or by which it is bound, or which could constitute a default thereunder.

5. With respect to the 2000 allocation, or a portion thereof, being assigned to the Authority pursuant to the Ordinance and the Assignment of Allocation, the City has not: (a) issued private activity bonds; (b) assigned the allocation to another "issuing authority" as such term is defined in the Allocation Act; (c) made a mortgage credit certificate election; or (d) treated the allocation as an allocation for a project with a carry-forward purpose.
6. No approval, permit, consent or authorization applicable to the City and not already obtained by the City of any government or public agency, authority or person is required in connection with the adoption, the execution and delivery by the City of, and the performance by it of its obligations under, the Ordinance and the Assignment of Allocation.

This opinion may be relied upon by: (i) the Authority's Bond Counsel in rendering its opinion in connection with the issuance by the Authority of revenue bonds; (ii) each institution which may act as an underwriter of any such revenue bonds; no one else without the written approval of the City.

Regards,

Dan Wilson
City Attorney
